One night, a small owl looked inside a deep well . He saw the bright, round moon in the dark water . He started to cry loudly .He ran to his mother and said, “The beautiful moon has fallen into the well. We must get it out.” His mother ran to the other owls and told them what has happened . The owls were very scared .They decided to pull the moon out with a long rope .

They tried and tried but it was of no use. The wet rope kept slipping over the moon .They could not pull it out. Just then a wise owl came there. He looked inside the well and saw the moon. He began to laugh. The other owls asked him why he was laughing. He pointed up towards the sky. Everyone looked up and there it was: the lovely, shining moon , up there in the sky !
