

CLASS –IV
ASSIGNMENT – II

1. Read the following poem carefully.

- (1) The queen of all ships called 'Titanic'
Was sailing on North Atlantic,
The unsinkable ship of luxury
Gave passengers no cause for worry.
- (2) But the captain got a glance
and did not get a chance to save it from the danger that came as an iceberg drew near.
- (3) The sinking of the ship was as sad as could be
Only a few were saved from this tragedy
Those who did survive
lost their relatives and wanted to die.

(I) On the basis of your reading of the poem, complete the following summary by filling in each blank with one word only.

Titanic was called the (a) _____ of all ships because it was very luxurious and was considered to be (b) _____. But this ship could not be saved from the (c) _____ of being hit by an (d) _____. The ship sank killing lots of people and only few could be (e) _____. Many survivors lost their (f) _____.

(II) Write "T" against the statements that are 'True' and 'F' against the ones that are 'False'.

- (a) The passengers travelling on the Titanic were very worried.
- (b) Titanic was in the danger of being hit by an iceberg.
- (c) All the passengers travelling on the Titanic died.
- (d) The survivors wanted to die because they had lost their relatives.