REVISIONAL ASSIGNMENT
SUBJECT – ENGLISH
CLASS – V

1. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follows:

As Toad neared his famous house, Toad Hall, he took a lift with some people in a car. Once again, his great desire to drive a car overtook him. Toad turned to the driver. 'Please, Sir,' he said, 'I wish you would let me drive the car for a little while. It looks so easy.'

The driver laughed heartily, but the owner of the car said, 'Bravo, Ma'am! I like your spirit.' He told the driver, 'Let her have a try and look after her. She won't do any harm.'

Toad got into the driver's seat and moved off, but, slowly and carefully in the beginning. The gentlemen behind were very impressed and said, 'How well she does it. Fancy a washerwoman driving so well the first time!'

Toad went a little faster, and then faster still. The gentlemen called out, 'Be careful, washerwoman.' This annoyed him, and he began to drive faster still. The driver tried to interfere, but Road pinned him down in his seat, and put on full speed. 'Washerwoman indeed,' he shouted recklessly. 'Ho, Ho! I am Toad, the motor car snatcher, the prison-breaker, the Toad who always escapes! Sit still and you shall know what driving really is!

At this, all the gentlemen in the car flung themselves on him. They should have stopped the car before doing anything, for Toad gave the steering wheel a half turn, and sent it through a hedge into muddy pond, where it emptied out all its passengers.
